On 6th July Ashirwad Ceremony was organised by All India Foundation of Deaf Women and it's Delhi Chapter Delhi Foundation of Deaf Women (DFDW) at the Airport just before the departure of the team.

The accommodation and food arrangements were provided by the organizers.

The opening ceremony was on 6th July 2018 but unfortunately Indian Team was not able to attend the same because of the delay in Visa Approvals for the team.

Till 5th Evening the team didn't get the visa approval and this caused lots of stress and depression in the team. The players were so stressed that one of them required immediate medical attention while their stay at IG stadium during the training camp. Thus brought the morale of the players down.

It is regretted to state that since the Indian Deaf Chess Team arrived Manchester late, which resulted in the payment for the accommodation being overdue. Thus the original booking for the twin room (breakfast included) for Pound 100.00 GBP for two person (1 persons = 50.00) became invalid, so it was necessary to relocate to another hotel which had a slightly higher rate i.e. the twin room (breakfast included) for two persons per night was Pound 127.30 GBP (1 person = 63.65).

In the absence of Mr. Alaguraja, Mr. Mahendra Pal had changed from Open Individual to Team Men Event and hence Mr. Subhash Kapoor, who is an ex-international Chess player, moved to play in Open Individual Event.
